EXTENT OF THE STORM

Over Fifty Lives Lost in the Iowa Cyclone.

A HUNDRED MORE INJURED.

Some of the Latter Will Die, While Others Are Maimed for Life—Great Damage to Property—Farms and Villages Wiped Out by the Devastating Force of the Elements.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 24.—The cyclone which passed through northwestern Iowa Friday night proves to have been more destructive than first reported. Full details are not yet obtainable, but the extent of the damage done is being added to as each fresh report comes in. A narrow strip of country 200 miles long was laid waste by the hurricane which in many places developed into a regular tornado. In the path of the "twister" today are ruined towns, devastated farms and several hundred dead and injured people.

Starting about 10 miles south of Spencer, in northwestern Iowa, the storm of wind began its work of devastation. Taking everything before it, it swept across the state just north of Emmetsburg and Algona, wiping out the little town of Cylinder, but mostly injuring farms and several hundred dead and injured people.

Turning again to the east, the little towns of Homer and Lowther were badly damaged, and at one time reported completely wiped off the face of the earth. After crossing the Mississippi and doing considerable damage to farm buildings near Marshland, Wis., the storm seemed to have spent its fury.

The path of the storm was not wide, but it had all the characteristics of a deadly tornado and the dimensions of a cyclone. Just how many lives have been lost is still uncertain, but the reports indicate that certainly not less than 50 are dead, while some reports place the number at 100.

At Algona, Ia., 19 are dead and six fatally injured; near Osage, Ia., five are dead and one fatally injured; five are dead at Spring Valley, Minn.; three dead and one dying at Leroy, Minn., while other points also report fatalities, some of which, however, are included in this summary. The towns damaged or destroyed are Cylinder, Burt, Forest City and Manly Junction, in Iowa; Leroy, Spring Valley, Dodge Center Homer and Lowther, Minn., and Marshland, Wis.

AT ALGONA.

Nineteen Dead, Six Fatally Injured and Thirty-Nine Others Hurt.

ALGONA, Ia., Sept. 24.—Yesterday was a day of sorrow for Kosuth County. Nineteen funerals were held and others are yet to be buried.

The death list in the county is as follows:

Robert Stevenson.

Mrs. George Beaver's child.

George Holman's child.

Jacob Dingman, of Ft. Dodge.

Mrs. Fred French and two children.

Child of Albert Baker.

William Sweppe, boy and girl.

Clausendons and child.

Moses Caster and wife.

Thomas Tweeds, mother and two children.

Rockwell's baby.

At least six more will die.

The injured are reported as 39 in number, as follows: Mrs. Robert Stevenson, Mrs. Carl Barrick, may die; Carl Barrick, Barrick's boy; three other children in same family, George Beaver's infant child and adopted boy, Horace Schenck, will probably die; Mrs. Myron Schenck and child, Mrs. George Holman and four children, Mrs. Clausendons, can not live; W. M. Ferguson and wife and children, Mrs. Peter Peterson, skull fractured; Mrs. Swan Peterson, both arms and both legs broken; P. T. Ferguson and family, all slightly injured; Tom Tweed, severely hurt; Alex Tweed's wife and five children, Mrs. Rockwell, badly hurt; J. Eden, very badly hurt; Mrs. F. Meyers, Thomas Britton, a farmer near Wesley, reported missing and presumed to be killed.

Professor A. J. Lilly of the northern Iowa normal school came in from Garner and reports 13 dead in Ellington township north of Garner; 12 near Manly, Ellington township; 16 north of Britt.

AT OSAGE.

Five Killed, One Fatally Injured and a Number of Others Hurt.

OSAGE, Ia., Sept. 24.—Five people were killed instantly and one more will die from the effects of the cyclone here. Many others are seriously, and perhaps fatally, injured.

Dead—Mrs. Patrick Lonergan, aged 65; Mrs. Philip Herbst, aged 30; Anna Perry, aged 12; Harry Herbst, aged six months.

Injured—William Perry, aged 27, skull injured at base, scalp torn, can live but a few hours; Jacob Finley, hurt about the head; Katie Lonergan, hurt about the head and internally, may die; Joseph Lonergan, flesh wounds; Benjamin Kestern, cut about the face; Mrs. Benjamin Kestern; Dennis Lonergan, artery in wrist severed and otherwise injured.

AT SPRING VALLEY.

Five Are Dead and the Injured Number Twenty-Five.

SPRING VALLEY, Minn., Sept. 24.—As a result of the cyclone here five people are dead and 25 were injured.

The dead are: C. L. King, Mrs. Louis Rose, Miss and Mrs. N. Dodge and a child of Frank Meshak.

The wounded are: Lena Rose, seriously; Mr. Harper, face brusied; Mrs. Harper, back injured; Mrs. Frank Meshak, back critically injured; Charles Dodge, critically; Nellie Runsey, broken leg; Sallie Williams, seriously; Mrs. Wm. Armstrong, arm broken; John Ness, arm broken; Mrs. John Ness, scalp wound, will recover; John Ness' child, scalp wound, recovery doubtful; Mrs. C. G. King, slightly; Clark King, slightly; Jesse Harris, slightly; Mrs. Wm. Bovee, seriously; Lucy Bovee, slightly.

NEW YORK DEMOCRATS.

No State Made Out and No Program Has Been Arranged.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 24.—A situation more strange than any that has yet confronted the Democratic party and the like of which has never been seen by any of the assembled party leaders, is presented here within 24 hours of the time set for the nomination of a candidate for the office of governor of New York. No selection of a candidate has yet been made; and while one name is prominently mentioned here, no one person can be said to have anything like a mortgage on the nomination.

So far there are four candidates mentioned for governor: Judge Gaynor of Brooklyn, John Boyd Thacher of Albany, Frederick F. Cook of Rochester and Senator David B. Hill. Daniel S. Lockwood of Buffalo was mentioned, but it is said by those who know that he is practically out of the race, and that Mr. Sheehan's support, which may dominate Erie, will be thrown toward Frederick Cook. Every effort will be made, however, to induce Mr. Cook to accept the second place upon the ticket in case either Judge Gaynor or Senator Hill is nominee.

As to Mr. Hill as a candidate, Lieutenant Governor Sheehan said today: "I conversed with Senator Hill on the matter Saturday afternoon, before leaving Albany for Saratoga. He not only said that he would not be a candidate, but insisted that I should not broach the subject to him any more, and hoped that no further mention of it would be made."

Notwithstanding the assertion of Mr. Sheehan, there are some people here who profess to believe that Senator Hill may yet be induced to accept. With this feeling prevailing, Tammany, at its meeting, will, at the suggestion of Senator Carter, send a committee to wait upon the senator, and try to prevail upon him to be a candidate.

Met His Death on the Highway.

CORSCIANA, Tex., Sept. 24.—The most bloodcurdling crime in the history of this county was committed one mile from here yesterday afternoon. Gid C. Taylor, superintendent of the poor farm, one mile from this city, was riding to the farm when he met his death. It is supposed two brothers, J. A. and W. T. Murphy, met him and asked him to drink with them, and he refused to drink and attempted to arrest the Murphys and was shot. This is the theory of Sheriff Weaver. When found, Taylor was dead, his pistol was in its scabbard and had not been used. Five bullets pierced his body and it is supposed death was instantaneous.

Murdered by His Enemies.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 24.—A surveying corps located at Toadville, Ala., while passing through the mountains Saturday, found the headless skeleton of a man leaning against a bluff. Not a vestige of clothing or flesh was left on the bones, nor was the skull anywhere to be found. Toadville has been the scene of many old feuds and deadly conflicts between the opposing factions have not been infrequent. Several years ago John Oliver, a member of one of these factions, mysteriously disappeared. A gold ring found beside the skeleton bears Oliver's initials and it is now believed he was led off by enemies and murdered.

Prominent Baltimorean Dead.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 24.—Charles J. Baker, a leading capitalist and the head of the firm of Baker Bros. & Co., glass manufacturers, died yesterday at his country residence, Athol, of apoplexy, aged 73 years. Mr. Baker was formerly president of the Union railroad, and of the old Franklin bank, and a director of the Canton company. He was one of the proprietors of the old Baltimore Gazette. He was prominent in Methodist church and mission work. During the last four months of 1881 he acted as mayor of Baltimore, being then president of the city council.

Shot Her Husband in the Dark.

ALLAGAN, Mich., Sept. 24.—Ira Hurd, a cooper, aged 41, left home yesterday evening, stating that he was going to a neighboring village to stay all night. Instead he appears to have watched his house. His wife says that while she was kneeling at prayer by her bedside, a man entered her room. She reached for her revolver and shot him, turned up the light and discovered that it was her husband. The ball lodged in his brain and he lived two hours, but did not regain consciousness.

Rebel Advancing.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—A special to The World from Montevideo, Uruguay, says the rebels in Brazil, according to reports received here, have made a further advance. Matto Grosso, it is said, will soon be in open revolt. The San Mateo garrison deserted to rebels after killing the officers.

ORIENTAL ADVICES.

News Brought From China and Japan by Steamer.

INSURRECTION CAUSED BY WANT.

Scarcity of the Rice and Other Grain Causes a Serious State of Affairs—Chinese Imperial Family Misinformed About the War—Use For Our War Vessels—Other Events.

VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 24.—The following has been received here by the Northern Pacific steamer Victoria, from the several correspondents of the Associated Press:

Japanese Goods Prohibited.

YOKOHAMA, Sept. 24.—The governor of Canton has issued a decree forbidding all people under his authority to purchase or use goods of Japanese manufacture.

Insurrection Caused by Famine.

An insurrection has broken out at Chang-Shan, in the Shan-Tung province, sufficiently formidable to beat back the detachment of troops sent to quell the disturbance. There is no evidence the outbreak has any political significance, though hints to that effect appear in the Chinese newspapers. The general distress in the neighborhood and the appearance of a famine is sufficient for popular disorders in more than one locality.

Scarcity of Rice and Grain.

Fears are expressed in the north of China that the supply of rice will be insufficient, not only for the people at large, but even for the demands of the army and navy. The Grand canal route from the southern rice-growing districts is blocked above Chin-Kiang and doubts have arisen as to the practicability of transporting grain by sea. By a singular error of judgment, the Pekin government has incited rice in list of contraband articles. Circumstances which would be turned heavily to the disadvantage of European ships, had they not since received an order that the grain shipped in neutral vessels must not be considered contraband. Then, under this ruling, the difficulty of securing ships for the service is great and the conveyance of food to the Chinese troops in Corea across the Gulf of Pechili is completely cut off by the Japanese cruisers.

Thus far, however, the Chinese forces have subsisted mainly upon the products of the regions they occupy. In the middle of August it was admitted by officials in Pekin that northern granaries contained only food enough to meet the ordinary requirements of six weeks.

Chinese Imperial Family Misinformed.

The Chinese imperial family has been persuaded that the route of the army was one brilliant victory, and Nichi, who figured in the preliminary fight at Song-Nwan, has received a present of 80,000 taels direct from the sovereign, and General Yeh, who was in command and has been placed in full control of troops in Corea with promotion to the rank of field marshal, has been honored by a special decree in which the emperor eulogizes in these words: "When General Yeh vanquished the foe at Asan, the empress manifested her favor by bestowing upon him 20,000 taels. Now, he memorializes that he left Asan with 10,000 men, fighting his way through the Japanese army, of which he slaughtered 1,600, losing only 500 of his own followers. We hereby proclaim Yeh's bravery and the valor of those who served under him. Let him send us a list of all of his officers that we may forthwith promote them; and also a list of his killed that we may confer supplemental on their families."

Supplemental to the above, an edict has been published dated Aug. 26, consequent on the latest dispatch received by the emperor from General Yeh. That officer has at last found it expedient to inspect his army and inform his sovereign that after the battle at Asan, which he still claims as a victory, he was surrounded by such overwhelming numbers of Japanese that after fighting desperately for six hours and inflicting frightful slaughter upon the enemy he was compelled to retreat and carry the remains of his army to a new rendezvous at Phigyanhe. He humbly begs that he be severely censured for his failure to destroy the Japanese forces, but the emperor proclaims that since he was able to escape, though hemmed in on all sides by an army several times larger than his own, and to inflict a heavier loss than he himself suffered, therefore his merit is sufficient to compensate for any inability on his part, and "his request for censure is graciously refused." But the announcement also comes from Pekin that General Yeh had been relieved from the chief command in Corea recently conferred and is replaced by an officer of superior rank.

River Blocked.

The river approach to Ning-Po has been blocked by driving piles to obstruct the channel, leaving a narrow space for junks to pass through. To close this space in case the Japanese should appear barge are loaded with stones to be ready for sinking.

Use for Our War Vessels.

Telegrams announce that, in consequence of the continued refusal of the Governor of Shanghai to allow the city the privileges of a neutral port remonstrances were sent early in September by the foreign consuls. As no satisfactory answer was returned the following joint resolution was adopted and forwarded to the Chinese authorities: "The action of the Taipoo of Shanghai is most unfair to a neutral port, and if he continues to act in such a violent manner, troops will be landed from the American man-of-war for the protection of the inhabitants of the settlement."

Outrages Perpetrated on Foreigners.

Two European missionaries have been murdered by Chinese soldiers, one, a Frenchman, named Josea, who had a large native following in the Corean town of Ponghu, is said to have incurred the displeasure of General Yeh, on that warrior's retreat from Asan, and to have been beheaded after a form of military trial on imaginary outrages.

A Scotchman named James Wylie was set upon in Sinc-Yang and beaten so brutally that he died in a few hours.

Coreans Engage in Piracy.

Corean adventurers are taking advantage of present disorders to engage in piracy on a small scale. Within the past fortnight several Japanese fishing boats have been seized at different points off the Corean coast, their valuable stolen and crews barbarously maltreated.

Chinese Warships to Be Disguised.

Warning has been sent from Shanghai that an attempt will be made to disguise a number of ships belonging to the China Merchants Steam Navigation company and dispatch them under the British flag with munitions of war and provisions to places occupied by Chinese troops.

Anyone Can Buy War Bonds.

Foreign newspapers in Japan announce that the new war bonds can not be held by aliens: This is an error. The department of finance declares that the subscription is open to all persons, irrespective of nationality.

English Charged With Unfairness.

The Japanese newspapers continue to charge English officials in China with unfairness toward that empire. Trustworthy evidence is thus far lacking, but complaints are so numerous and direct that inquiry may become necessary.

Coreans to Fight with the Japs.

The intention of Corea to send such forces as she can enroll to fight under the Japanese standard has been formally proclaimed and the first detachment has left Seoul for Ping-Yang.

Gifts to the King and Queen.

Marquis Saiongi, bearer of gifts from the Emperor and Empress of Japan to the King and Queen of Corea has been received at the court of Seoul with demonstrations of welcome.

POLITICAL RIOT.

Number of People Injured in a Church at Gatlingburg, Tenn.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 24.—A riot occurred at Gatlingburg Saturday night between the partisans of John C. Houck and Henry Gibson, rival Republican candidates for congress. While Congressman Houck was addressing a large audience in the Baptist church several of Gibson's supporters attempted to howl him down, and great excitement followed.

During this confusion Deputy Sheriff Seaton entered the church with a warrant for one of Gibson's leaders for pistol carrying. As he grabbed his prisoner some of his followers jumped on the deputy and a fight began. The deputy summoned aid and a great confusion followed. Pistols were flourished, stones thrown and 15 fought like tigers for several minutes. When the law conquered it was found that Avery Codill, leader of the Gibson men, had his skull crushed from blows from a butt end of a pistol and Redmond Maples, who had been summoned by the deputy, also had his skull crushed. Both of them are fatally injured. Several others were seriously injured.

Fatal Shooting Affray.

MANCOS, Colo., Sept. 24.—News of a fatal shooting affray at Galconda Saturday has just been received. Captain G. A. Jackson, superintendent of the J. M. and E. Double Standard Mining company, discharged a number of employees, among them A. J. Sparks. Sparks armed himself with the intention of killing Jackson. When Sparks appeared at the camp Jackson commanded him to throw up his hands. This Sparks refused to do, so Jackson fired twice, the second shot killing Sparks instantly.

Martial Law in Peru.

LIMA, Sept. 24.—General Borgona is marching through the country declaring martial law. The government is in need of money. Foreigners and natives are being asked to contribute. In order to buy ammunition the government is trying to raise money by mortgaging its property.

Locomotive Boiler Explodes.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 24.—The boiler-head of a locomotive on an eastbound train blew out yesterday while the train was passing through the snowdrifts near Blue canon, injuring Engineer Goddard and Fireman Lipscomb. The latter died a few hours after the accident.

THE TAX of two cents a pack on playing cards is said to be bringing to the Government a good revenue. "This new feature in the line of internal revenue ought to prove a good object lesson to Congress," remarks the West Union Defender. "It should teach that body that there are many ways of raising a large amount of revenue without over-burdening with taxes the necessities of life. Playing cards could well stand a tax of five cents a pack. It's the tax on articles of food and clothing that pinches the mass of the American people."

COL. O. C. BOWLES, of Pikeville, Pike County, Ky., has discarded Democracy and joined the vast and growing army of Protectionists. We have not the pleasure of Col. Bowles's acquaintance, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch, but any man who deserts Democracy in Pikeville, Pike County, Ky., at once establishes a reputation for courage that is entitled to the admiration and respect of all true Americans.—Public Ledger.

Tooting your horn too soon, Br'er Davis. The Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat states that it is reliably informed that Colonel Bowles denounces as untrue the statement that he has left the Democratic party, and states that he is still in line on all questions with the Democrats. So, there, now. What are you going "to do about it?"

THE DEVIL REBUKING SIN.

McKinley denouncing the new tariff as "the work of a monstrous trust" is an interesting spectacle, says the Chicago Herald.

If the new law is the work of a monstrous trust, what was the McKinley law? It is notorious that when McKinley and his committee were constructing their bill they invited the various "interests" to submit schedules to suit themselves, then made these schedules more favorable to the "interests" and enacted them into law.

Most of the "interests" had previously taken on the form of trusts and like combinations, against which were directed the thunders of the Sherman anti-trust law. The McKinley law, therefore, was the work not of a monstrous trust, but of a score of monstrous trusts. And it gave those trusts more than even their own representatives had the impudence to demand.

It is the sugar trust to which McKinley refers, of course, as the "monstrous trust" which made the new law. And nothing but the sugar schedule and a few items of refining materials are the work of that trust. Nobody pretends that any other part of the law is its work, because the trust has no special interest in anything else.

Now, how did this trust come to be "monstrous"? Its officers, the two Havemeyers and Seales, told how in their testimony before the Senate investigating committee. Mr. Seales told how when he testified that the McKinley schedule was worth twice as much to the trust as the Senate schedule.

H. O. Havemeyer told how when he admitted that the trust had made between $30,000,000 and $35,000,000 out of the McKinley law in three years. It was the McKinley law and its predecessor, the Republican tariff of 1883, that made the trust "monstrous" and supplied it with the means for influencing legislation.

How was this "monstrous trust" able to dictate at all to a Democratic Congress? It could not dictate to the Democratic House, which made sugar absolutely free, with no favor either to the trust or to the cane and beet growers, both when it passed the Wilson bill in the first instance and when it passed the supplementary sugar bill. It could dictate only to the Senate, and it could dictate to the Senate only because the Republicans of that body supported the trust with unbroken ranks from first to last.

If there had been so much as one righteous Republican, the separate sugar bill, presenting the question on its naked merits, would have been passed. But as in Sodom and Gomorrah not one righteous man was found, so not one was found on the Republican side of the Senate chamber. That is why the sugar schedule was the work of a "monstrous trust."

Approaching Nuptial Event.

"A very swell wedding is announced to take place at the Christian Church, of Owingsville, on October 10 at which Miss Daisy Lee Nesbitt will be married to Wilson B. Strader, of Lexington," says the Louisville Post. "Miss Nesbitt is the daughter of Hon. J. J. Nesbitt, a prominent lawyer of Owingsville and ex-Representative of the General Assembly, and a niece of Hon. C. W. Nesbitt, Commonwealth's Attorney for that district. She is a granddaughter of the late J. A. J. Lee, the widely-known banker. She was educated at Miss Nold's in Louisville, and at Hamilton College in Lexington, and is a woman of bright intellect. Mr. Strader is the managing member of the firm of R. S. Strader & Sons, of Lexington, and is a gentleman of much popularity and worth."

The bride-to-be is a niece of Mrs. Samuel M. Hall and Messrs. T. Y. and E. H. Nesbitt, of this city, and has many warm friends here.

Kentucky Coal.

Kentucky coal must find its best market in the Northwest. Its superior quality and its location with reference to that market makes this sure. The following from the Ashland News shows that this fact is being recognized:

A party of coal men from the Northwest have gone up the Big Sandy Valley, under the guidance of John C. C. Mayo, that prince of Big Sandy busters, and C. K. Lawrence, our active, but modest townsmen. This party is composed of some of the largest coal operators of Chicago and the larger cities of the Northwest, principally St. Paul, Minneapolis and West Superior. They are here making a complete examination of the resources of the Big Sandy valley, and with the above-named gentlemen to guide them they will not fail to be favorably impressed. Both were in the city this week and are confident that it can not be long till the development of the Big Sandy territory is assured.

The above will prove of special interest to several Maysvillians who are owners of a fine coal bed in the section referred to. Mr. Mayo took another prospecting party from Chicago this week.

Business Improving.

Cincinnati Enquirer: "Colonel F. J. O'Connell, of Ironton, and connected with the Yellow Poplar Lumber Company, one of the largest concerns of its kind in the West, passed through the city on his way home from a business trip in the Northwest. He reports a general revival of business in the lumber trade, and says the company sold more lumber during the last week of August and the first week in September than during the entire three previous months. The Colonel says that inquiries for prices and estimates are coming in every day, indicating a good business from now on. He believes that the lumber trade has passed its worst stage, and that all the company's mills will be in active operation just as soon as the rivers can bring down the logs."

And "free lumber" was going to paralyze the lumber trade of the country.

A Most Worthy Cause.

The Mission night school in the First Ward opened last week with fifty-two pupils. If any one has any old school books, such as first, second, third or fourth readers and primary arithmetics, they do not want they can give them to the school. Leave or send to J. M. Scott at the cotton mill and he will see they are given to the proper authorities.

BLACKBURN AND HARDIN COMING.

The Democrats of Mason County Will Open the Campaign Next Wednesday.

The Democrats of Maysville and Mason County will open the campaign next Wednesday night with a grand rally at the court house.

Kentucky's eloquent Senator, Hon. Jo C. S. Blackburn, and the brilliant speaker, General P. Wat Hardin, will be the orators of the occasion. The mere announcement of their coming ought to insure a crowded house.

The Democrats are urged to turn out in full force. Republicans will be welcome. A special invitation is extended to the ladies. Seats will be reserved for them.

The Democrats will follow this meeting up with a vigorous campaign all along the line. Arrangements are being made for meetings at various points in the county, and a thorough organization will be effected.

"Living Pictures" To-night.

The new musical extravaganza under the name of "A Liberty Bell" will be seen at the opera house to-night. It is a combination of comedy, music and acrobatic feats. An exchange from Columbus, O., says:

The show as a whole is well put together and is not lacking in the essential qualities necessary to a lasting success. The performance concludes with the introduction of a series of living pictures, twelve or fifteen in number. As they were the first ever seen here much interest was taken in that part of the performance. The pictures are shown in a huge gold frame under strong calcium light effects and are particularly striking. For the most part they are admirably arranged and not at all immodest. Several of them were made to represent familiar subjects and elicited much applause.

Pork Packing.

[Cincinnati Price Current, September 20.] During the past week Western packers have handled 190,000 hogs, compared with 175,000 the preceding week, showing a moderate tendency to increase supplies. For corresponding time last year the total was 210,000. From March 1 the aggregate packing is 7,250,000 hogs, against 5,635,000 last year—an increase of 1,615,000. There is some improvement in quality of hogs being marketed, but there is much to be desired yet in this respect. Prices of hogs have been reduced, and at the close the average for Western markets is about 30 cents per 100 pounds lower than a week ago, with a continuance of a wide range in prices. A year ago the tendency of values was upward, and the general average was 40 and 50 cents per 100 pounds higher than now prevailing.

THE CHAMPIONS WON.

Saturday's Game of Ball Resulted in a Victory For the Visitors—The Clevelands Coming.

The closing game of ball between the Blue Grass Champions and the Maysville Saturday afternoon resulted in a victory for the visitors by a score of 5 to 1.

The game was one of the fastest ever played on the grounds, only a little over one hour being required to finish the nine innings. In one inning Maysville had the Champions retired by the time Wellner had pitched four balls.

The Champions won in the fourth inning by some good batting, assisted by some rank errors on the part of the locals.

Tannehill was in the box for the visitors and received gilt-edged support from his field. Wellner pitched for Maysville, and should have had better support from his infield. That both pitchers were very effective is shown by the number of hits—only two off of Tannehill and only four off of Wellner. Following is a summary of the game:

THE CLEVELANDS COMING.

There will be only one more game here this season and that will be the big one a week from to-day with the Cleveland League team. Lovers of the National sport from all the surrounding country should see this game. Maysville will have a strong team and will give the Leaguers a lively tussle.

As the season is practically closed here, Wellner and Taylor will probably return to their home at Hamilton, O., to-day or to-morrow. They are both splendid fellows, and their gentlemanly conduct and excellent work with the home team have won them a legion of friends who hope to see them back again next year.

UGLY CHARGES

GROWING OUT OF THE SALE OF THE RIPLEY SHOE FACTORY—LOOKS VERY CROOKED.

CINCINNATI ENQUIRER: "CHARGES OF FRAUD ARE BEING MADE BY A NUMBER OF THE CREDITORS OF THE RIPLEY SHOE MANUFACTURING COMPANY OF RIPLEY, IN THE SALE OF THE COMPANY'S PLANT BY RECEIVER W. C. WILLIAMSON TO HIS BROTHER, A. W. WILLIAMSON, SECRETARY-TREASURER OF THE BENNETT & PECK HEATING AND VENTILATING COMPANY OF CINCINNATI. THE SALE WAS MADE ON SEPTEMBER 19TH, AT NOON. THE CAUSES LEADING TO THE SALE OF THE PLANT ARE COMPLICATED AND LOOK RATHER PECAULIAR."

"THE APPOINTMENT OF THE RECEIVER, WHICH OCCURRED ABOUT A MONTH AGO, WAS OCCASIONED BY CINCINNATI CREDITORS REPRESENTING ABOUT $18,000 OF THE LIABILITIES, WHICH AMOUNTED TO $50,000. THE CINCINNATI CREDITORS, THROUGH THEIR ATTORNEYS, OTTO PFEFER AND ERNST REHN, BROUGHT SUIT TO ASSESS THE STOCKHOLDERS' LIABILITY. THE STOCK IN HAND OF THE COMPANY HAD BEEN APPRAISED AT $14,000, THE MACHINERY, WHICH COST $14,000, AT $5,000. THE BUILDING, GROUND, BOILERS AND ENGINE, TOGETHER WITH A FREE RENTAL OF TWO YEARS AND A FAT BONUS, HAD BEEN CONTRIBUTED BY THE TOWN OF RIPLEY. IT CAN, THEREFORE, BE SEEN THAT IT WOULD BE A BONANZA FOR SOME ONE."

"THE TWO CINCINNATI ATTORNEYS WENT TO RIPLEY TO SEE WHAT THE PLANT COULD BE SOLD FOR, AND WHILE THERE RECEIVED A BID OF $8,500 FROM THE FORMER SUPERINTENDENT OF THE COMPANY, A. B. SPINKS. HE FAILED TO PUT UP THE REQUIRED FORFEIT MONEY AND THE DEAL FELL THROUGH. THE ATTORNEYS THEN MADE AN AGREEMENT WITH G. BAMBACH, RECEIVER WILLIAMSON'S ATTORNEY, THAT ALL BIDS RECEIVED FOR THE PLANT SHOULD BE APPROVED BY THE COURT BEFORE A SALE WAS MADE. BELIEVING THAT ALL BIDS WOULD BE HELD FOR THIS APPROVAL, THE CINCINNATI ATTORNEYS RETURNED HOME AND GAVE THE MATTER BUT LITTLE THOUGHT."

"WHAT WAS THEIR SURPRISE WHEN THEY RECEIVED WORD SATURDAY MORNING THAT THE ENTIRE PLANT HAD BEEN SOLD BY RECEIVER WILLIAMSON TO HIS BROTHER, A. W. WILLIAMSON, ON SEPTEMBER 19TH, FOR $2,200. UPON INVESTIGATION IT WAS LEARNED THAT HE HAD RECEIVED THE BID AND CLOSED THE SALE. ONE HALF OF THE MONEY WAS PAID ON THE PLANT AND THE WHOLE TRANSACTION DONE WITHOUT THE KNOWLEDGE OR CONSENT OF ANY OF THE CREDITORS, AND WITHOUT THE COURT'S APPROVAL OF THE BID."

"THIS ARoused THE ire OF THE CINCINNATI LAWYERS, WHO, WITH A NUMBER OF THE LOCAL CREDITORS, CALLED UPON MR. A. W. WILLIAMSON, AT HIS OFFICE, AT THE BENNETT & PECK COMPANY, SHORTLY BEFORE NOON. MR. WILLIAMSON APPEARED CONSIDERABLY AGITATED, AND FINALLY, AFTER A RATHER STORMY SCENE IN THE OFFICE, ACKNOWLEDGED PURCHASING THE PLANT AS DESCRIBED ABOVE. BUT HE CLAIMED IN DEFENSE THAT IT WAS A MATTER THAT LAY WHOLLY WITHIN THE POWER OF THE RECEIVER, AND THAT THE BARGAIN WAS CLOSED AND HE INTENDED TO HOLD ONTO IT IN SPITE OF ALL PROTESTS. HE WAS REQUESTED BY THE CREDITORS TO WITHDRAW HIS BID ON THE GROUND THAT IT WAS BOTH MORALLY AND LEGALLY WRONG FOR HIM TO PURCHASE THE PLANT AT SUCH FIGURES, AND IN THE MANNER HE DID, ESPECIALLY WHEN HIS BROTHER WAS THE RECEIVER. BUT HE ONLY REITERATED HIS STATEMENT AND THE PARTY LEFT."

"THE CREDITORS INFORMED RECEIVER WILLIAMSON BY WIRE THAT NO COURT WOULD UPHOLD SUCH A SALE, AND THAT IT WAS THEIR BELIEF THAT HE RAILED THE SALE THROUGH FOR THE BENEFIT OF HIS BROTHER. JUDGE DAVIS WAS TELEGRAPHED THE FACTS IN THE CASE, AND WAS ALSO NOTIFIED BY THE CINCINNATI ATTORNEYS THAT IMMEDIATE ACTION WOULD BE TAKEN TO SET ASIDE THE SALE, ON THE GROUND THAT IT WAS FRAUDULENT, AND TO ADVERTISE FOR BIDS ON THE PLANT, AS THEY HAVE BIDDERS FOR TWICE THE AMOUNT OF MR. WILLIAMSON'S BID."

British Troops In the United States.

British troops have rushed through Maine for several months, the activity being specially noticeable at present, but no one in Maine has got excited over the matter. Indeed very few knew anything about it until informed by a dispatch Saturday from St. John. These movements, it is said, are in the line of experiments, the British government desiring to find out just how long it would take to get its men and supplies across the continent in event of trouble with Russia. A few weeks ago a special train carrying armament and supplies was despatched from Halifax to Esquimalt, British Columbia, with instructions to stop for nothing but water and to change engines. There were nine loaded cars on the train, and the trip was made, according to the report by the Canadian Pacific officials, in less than five days—Lewiston Journal.

EAST LIMESTONE.

Several from this neighborhood attended the Aberdeen fair last week.

Miss Bessie Porter, of Maysville, was the pleasant guest of Mrs. Eva Wise the past week.

Mrs. Joe Moran, of Covington, was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher, the past week.

R. C. Williams purchased the Stewart farm which was recently sold by order of the court, where he intends to remove in the near future.

The meddlesome Mattie, alias smart Alex, that reported that the farm recently purchased by Mr. Omar Dodson from R. C. Williams at a price beyond its value would, no doubt, find it greatly to his interest to attend to his own business. The farm was sold at a sacrifice to meet the arrangements of parties concerned, and could not be bought to-day for the purchase price.

THE "Redskin" tobacco factory starts up-to-day after a shut-down of several weeks.

T. S. ANDREWS, as executor of Belle D. Andrews, has sold 122 acres and 19 poles of land on Mill Creek to C. J. Sutton for $2,875.21.

THE Washington Post, an independent newspaper, with pronounced views, tells it all in a few words when it says: "When a politician begins to lean heavily on the American flag, it is safe to guess he is trying to hide some of his weak points."

THE Charles Carroll Council, Young Men's Institute, of Covington, gave a picnic three months ago, at which beer was dispensed contrary to the warning of Bishop Maes. The Board of Grand Directors had the matter before them, sustained the Bishop and directed him to fix the punishment. He has just announced that the council is suspended for sixty days from July 30.

MR. JAMES SHACKLEFORD, of the firm of Myall & Shackleford, buggy and carriage manufacturers, has returned from Bath County, where he superintended an exhibit of their vehicles at Sharpsburg fair last week. He made several fine sales and will book many more orders from that section. This year has been the most successful so far in the firm's history. They are closing out their large stock at prices to suit the times.

SAM. STAIRS will begin the publication of "The Searchlight" at Dover October 6th. It will be a six column folio, all home print, and will be devoted "exclusively and uncompromisingly to the interest of the People's party," according to the prospectus which is before us. The subscription price is $1.00 a year, 50 cents for six months and 25 cents for three months.
